DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On December 20, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that that she suffered a syncopal episode upon receiving an influenza vaccine on December 23, 2014, which resulted in “injuries, including concussion, dental fractures, and permanent facial scarring.” Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On October 30, 2018, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for her alleged injury. On December 17, 2018, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $101,671.56, which includes $100,000.00 for actual and projected pain and suffering. Proffer at 1-2. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer. Id.

¹ The undersigned intends to post this decision on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website. This means the decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access. Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, undersigned is required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $101,671.56 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Faith Hoelzel. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

suffering has been reduced to net present value. See 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(4). Petitioner agrees.

B. Past Unreimbursable Expenses

Evidence supplied by petitioner documents Faith Hoelzel's expenditure of past unreimbursable expenses related to her vaccine-related injury. Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded past unreimbursable expenses in the amount of $1,671.56, as provided under the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(1)(B). Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to Faith Hoelzel should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and requests that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following¹: a lump sum payment of $101,671.56, representing compensation for pain and suffering ($100,000.00), and past unreimbursable expenses ($1,671.56), in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Faith Hoelzel.

III. Summary of Recommended Payments Following Judgment

Lump sum payable to petitioner, Faith Hoelzel:	$101,671.56
